

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local Business Woman Named ABWA District Vice President

Dallas, TX. (10.24.11) –the American Business Women’s Association elected Lorie L. Burch, a Dallas estate planning attorney, to the position of District II Vice President of ABWA during the 62nd annual conference in Irving, Texas. Burch will represent five states in the Southeast and Southwest regions, including Texas and Oklahoma.

Lorie is the owner and attorney of the Law Office of Lorie L. Burch, PC in Dallas, Texas, which focuses on estate planning, including wills, trusts, powers of attorney, and probate. Incorporated in 2008, she opened her own law practice in 2004, and reports that starting her own business has been the most rewarding professional experience, both as an attorney and business owner. “I’ve grown so much since joining ABWA, both personally and professionally. As a second generation ABWA member, I am dedicated to building on our proud history, growing our membership, enhancing the dynamic and valuable experience for our current members, and creating greater visibility for our Association,” says Burch.

Lorie currently serves as the Chairwoman of the Board of Directors of the North Texas GLBT Chamber of Commerce as well as the Co-Chair of the D/FW Human Rights Campaign Steering Committee. In 2008, she was honored as the North Texas GLBT Chamber’s Business Person of the Year, and in 2010 was chosen as one of the Top Ten Business Women of the Year by ABWA. Burch is noted for saying “A good organization is one you believe in. A great organization is one that believes in you.”

About ABWA

Founded in 1949, ABWA’s mission is to bring together business women of diverse occupations and to provide opportunities to help themselves and others grow personally and professionally through leadership, education, networking support, and national recognition. For more information: visit www.abwa.org.

Contact Information:

Lorie Burch

Tel: 972-385-0558

E-mail: lorie@burch-law.com

www.burch-law.com

###